Overview

AN INSURANCE LITIGATION POWERHOUSE

We represent national insurance carriers in all aspects of insurance litigation matters, including matters on behalf of the insured and first party policy disputes. Bringing to bear the expertise and focus you need, each of our attorneys has been practicing law for more than a decade, handling matters from pleadings through trial. We have extensive experience in defending matters involving commercial, homeowners and automobile coverage and have extensive civil jury and bench trial experience. When appropriate, we pursue alternative dispute resolution, including binding arbitrations and mediation. We pride ourselves on consistently ranking among the best for file closure and cost per file.

We have handled thousands of insurance claims on behalf of insureds and self-insureds in both state and federal courts in the following areas:

- Automobile liability
- Premises liability
- Uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and disputes
- Products liability
- General tort litigation
- Construction defects
- Liquor liability
- Veterinary liability
- Bad-faith litigation
